LAGRANGE COLLEGE

1831-2005

Challenging the mind. Inspiring the soul.

The Hill of Ages

Through boys...

and love...

Through sadness...

and hope...

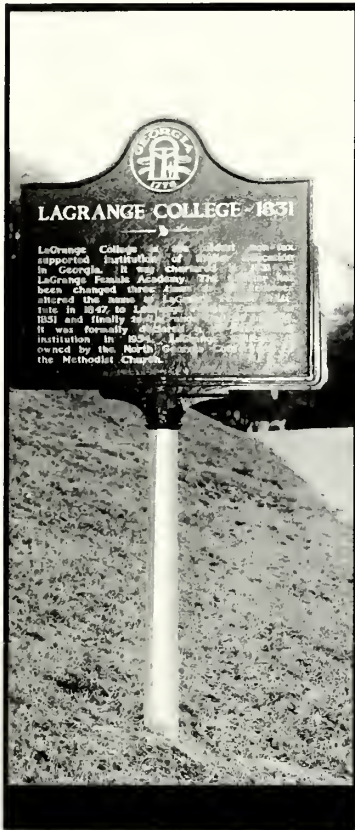

*...and through ever changing times,
LaGrange College has endured.*

So here's to the next 175 years!

The History of LaGrange College

LaGrange College is rich in history. From its beginning in 1831 to the present, the college has endured many trials both within the school itself and in the community surrounding it. This institution was born before the Statue of Liberty was dedicated, before the United States adopted standard time, and before electrical lighting was invented. An idea began in the 1820s to start a school of higher learning for women to attend. This concept was unheard of at this time in history. After much persuasion, permission was finally granted and in 1831 the LaGrange Female Academy was established. This school began in an old building which can still be seen near the campus. The campus is now located on what we call the "Hill", the highest point in LaGrange. In 1847, the school was renamed the LaGrange Female Institute. It did not become a college until 1851 changing to the LaGrange Female College. It was not until 1934 when we finally became LaGrange College. In the early 1900s women were receiving diplomas in areas such as voice, home economics, piano, and expression. Now we have Bachelor's and Master's degrees in numerous fields from nursing to art. Through the years, the college has seen friends and loved ones fight in many wars. Some of these include the Spanish American War, both World Wars, Vietnam, and now the War on Terrorism. In 1953, the college officially became coeducational allowing men to graduate. We became integrated in the late 1960s. Looking back through history, LaGrange College has seen it all. We have survived everything from financial hardships to fires, and this college will continue to thrive and to provide students from all over the world with a quality education and a life altering college experience for years to come.

Dedication

In recognition of your interest in the development of all areas of student life.

And in appreciation for your many years of teaching and counseling.

We lovingly dedicate the 2005-2006 Quadrangle to you.

~Dr. Linda Buchanan ~

The best and beautiful things in the world cannot be seen or even touched –they must be felt with the heart.

Dean B feels with her heart and that makes her such a beautiful person inside and out and that's why we all love her.

Dr. Linda Buchanan became a new addition to the LaGrange College community in the spring of 1997. She accepted the position of Vice President & Dean of Student Life and Retention. Her accomplishments include: the rank of Lieutenant Commander in the US Navy Reserve, columnist with the LaGrange Writers Group, and she served dutifully in Molesworth, England for three months as a naval intelligence officer during the recent war with Iraq. Finally she has attended a remarkable twenty-seven commencement ceremonies.

Quotes of Admiration

"Dean B has been one of the best professors, administrators, and friends to me. I really appreciate the hard work she has put in to tolerate me as a student and as a greek."

Nigel Walker

"Dean Buchanan is one of the outstanding professionals in student life in the country today. She is a pleasure to work with, but it is an even greater honor to call her friend."

President Stuart Gulley

"Not only has Dean B been my advisor, but she has been my friend and my mom here at school. I go to her about everything. She's been there for me during the laughs and the tears. I cannot imagine the past two years without her."

Danielle MacMinn

"The students of Lagrange College could not ask for a better advocate. Dean Buchanan keeps the best interests of her students at heart. She is well liked, respected, and admired by all. Student life at Lagrange would not be the same without her guidance and wisdom."

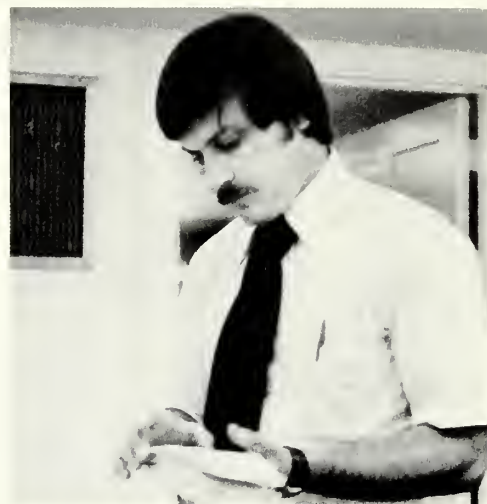

Larry Love

"One of the biggest reasons I made the journey from faculty to administration, from English professor to Dean of Students, was Dr. Linda Buchanan. From nearly the first moment I met her, the thing that always impressed me was Dean B's steadfast and absolute support of the students. I wanted to be a part of that world. She is always has been and always will be the student's champion. She's a terrific boss and a better friend."

LC BUDDIES

Our Mission:

LC Buddies is committed to making a positive impact in a child's life through dailey interaction in the school. Our goal is to show compassion and concern, with the hope of encouraging and inspiring the child in a way he or she will never forget. Therefore, he or she will continue the cycle of having a positive role model in the future through mentorship to other children around the LaGrange community.

LC BUS PROJECT

The Bus Project is an after school program that reaches out to underprivileged children in the community. We have a school bus that has been transformed into a mini classroom, complete with desk, computers, and cabinets. Grant Miller, the director of the Bus Project, and several student volunteers go out to the Live Oak Community park once a week and meet all of the kids living in the area.

"The kids come out and we help them with their homework, play games, do arts and crafts, and have a snack. The kids really enjoy it, and it is a great way for college students to reach out and make a difference in kids lives."

- Grant Miller

The Religious Experience

LaGrange College recognizes that the college experience is the turning point in its student's lives, and members of the college community do their best to be sure that students grow spiritually as well as mentally. LaGrange is called through the United Methodist Church, but it recognizes the wide range of religious beliefs that are prevalent on campus. Religious life provides fellowship, service, and learning, and it is a large part of the college experience on campus.

Phi Beta Sigma

Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. is a product of three insightful minds. The distinguished gentlemen that conceived Phi Beta Sigma comprise of the Honorable A. Langston Taylor, the Honorable Leonard F. Morse, and the Honorable Charles I. Brown. Phi Beta Sigma was founded on January 9, 1914 and brought about an organization in which the motto is, "Culture for Service, and Service for Humanity". This motto holds true because the honorable founders believed that they should give back to the communities in which they were raised. Along with our fraternity's motto, our three principles: Brotherhood, Scholarship, and Service, state our reason for existence.

Our vision is to utilize the skills and talent that God has given each of our members to bring about change on and off our college campus. We are determined to hold events and service projects that will make a difference!

Members: Nigel Walker, Justin Adeyemi, Avery Robertson, Gregory Agbasiere, Arshaad Norwood, and Llyod Buchanan

The vision and purpose of Phi Beta Sigma was brought to LaGrange College on May 18, 2003. Our fraternity members at LaGrange College are constantly serving proactively, reaffirming and maintaining a strong commitment to Brotherhood, Scholarship, and Service. Since our founding at LaGrange, we have been very active on and off the college campus; we have participated in the following:

- Can food drives
- Toy Drives (for critically injured children at Eggleston Hospital)
- Volunteered for Habitat for Humanity
- Tutored for LC Buddies,
- Participated in the Hurricane Katrina relief effort w/ LaGrange College
- The LaGrange Halloween Carnival
- We also provide weekly tutoring services to students at New Macedonia Baptist Church
- An annual Thanksgiving Dinner w/Glory to Glory Ministries (for underprivileged families)

“The Pride of moving a person into a house, feeding a needy family, and helping children learn is worth more than any party, the best events or the biggest membership.”
 – Bro. Marvin Burton

Our annual Thanksgiving Dinner for underprivileged families in the LaGrange community.

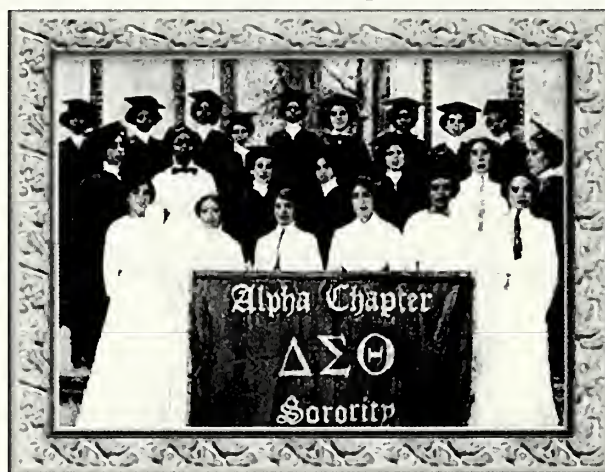

DELTA SIGMA THETA SORORITY, INC.

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority was founded on January 13, 1913 by twenty-two collegiate women at Howard University. These young women wanted to use their collective strength to promote academic excellence and to provide assistance to persons in need.

The first public act performed by the Delta Founders involved their participation in the Women's Suffrage March in Washington D.C., March 1913. Delta Sigma Theta was incorporated in 1930.

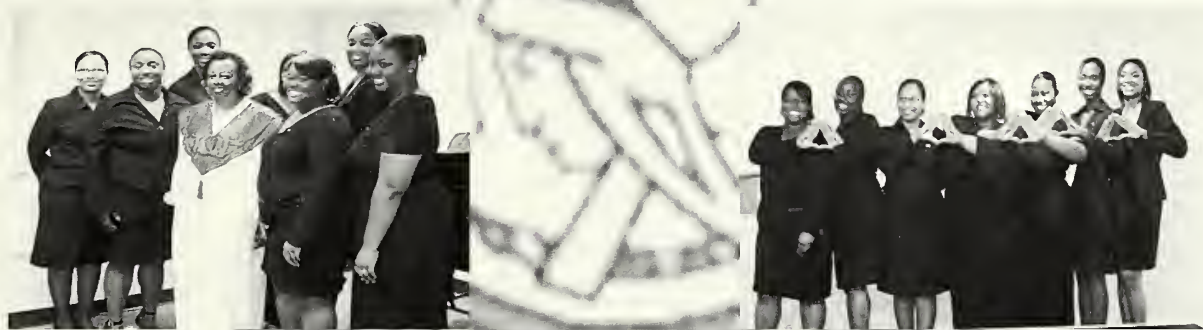

The Founders of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.

Today, Delta is the largest organization of predominately Black college educated women in the world with more than 200,000 educated women in over 900 chapters in the United States and extending to West Germany, the Virgin Islands, Bermuda, Haiti, Liberia, the Bahamas and the Republic of Korea. Delta's sisterhood is devoted to the promotion of its Five Point Thrust: Economic Development, Educational Development, International Awareness and Involvement, Physical and Mental Health and Political Awareness and Involvement.

SISTERHOOD, SCHOLARSHIP, AND SERVICE

THE BEGINNING OF TAU PHI

On April 26, 2005, seven visionary and dynamic collegiate young ladies brought the ideals of Delta to LaGrange College. We salute these charter members:

Janice Lynn Brewer
Lakesha Renee Brown

Their leadership and dedication made Tau Phi the 973rd chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. Tau Phi is committed to upholding high morality, sisterhood, and scholarship that our illustrious founders envisioned. To our advisors, Monica Askew, Gwendolyn McIntosh, and Yvonnia Robertson, we applaud you for your wisdom in laying the foundation of Tau Phi.

ZETA PHI BETA

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority was founded on the simple belief that sorority elitism and socializing should not overshadow the real mission for progressive organizations - to address societal mores, ills, prejudices, poverty, and health concerns of the day. Founded January 16, 1920, Zeta began as an idea conceived by five coeds at Howard University in Washington D.C.: Arizona Cleaver, Myrtle Tyler, Viola Tyler, Fannie Pettie and Pearl Neal. These five women, also known as our Five Pearls, dared to depart from the traditional coalitions for black women and sought to establish a new organization predicated on the precepts of Scholarship, Service, Sisterly Love and Finer Womanhood.

Alpha Kappa Alpha

In 1908, Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority became America's first Greek-letter organization established by Black college women. Her roots date back to Howard University, Washington D.C., where the idea for formation was conceived by Ethel Hedgeman Lyle of St. Louis, Missouri.

In a world in which materialism is persuasive, and technology and competition have decreased the need for collaboration and cooperation, it is critical to have an association that cuts across racial, international, physical, and social barriers to help individuals and communities develop and maintain constructive relationships with others. Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority is that vital organization.

Alpha Kappa Alpha is a sisterhood composed of women who have consciously chosen this affiliation as a means of self-fulfillment through volunteer service. Alpha Kappa cultivates and encourages high scholastic and ethical standards; promotes unity and friendship among college women; alleviates problems concerning girls and women; maintains a progressive interest in college life; and serves all mankind through a nucleus of more than 170,000 women in the United States, the Caribbean, Europe, and Africa

The wind up and the pitch... Two students play catch on the residential quad

The Residential Quadrangle is the place to be on sunny days. Behind Henry and between Candler and Vernon, the large grassy field is perfect for soccer, frisbee, or just playing catch.

I'll hold the ball
and you kick it...
A group of students play soccer.

I got it, I got it...
A student goes up for the catch during an impromptu game of frisbee.

Another outdoor gathering place is the patio between Smith, Hawkes, and Pitts. A brick patio with benches, a swing, a fountain, and a message board set in the middle of campus makes an ideal meeting place for all students.

It's a bird, it's a plane... A group of Phi Mus point out the important points on campus

Hmm, acoustic cafe this week...

Two girls ponder the meaning of a new flier on the message board.

Rack 'em up... Two students play pool on one of The Pit's two pool tables. The Pit also has two ping-pong tables, a foosball table, 2 cable televisions, and a game closet.

Ante up... A group of die-hard poker fans play Texas Hold 'Em every week in Henry Lobby.

Who's up for a Family Guy marathon?... Henry Lobby also has a big-screen television for watching your favorite show with a group of friends.

All play and no work makes

2005: In Review

Hurricane Katrina - On August 29, Hurricane Katrina made landfall in New Orleans, LA, becoming the cause of the largest natural devastation to ever hit America. Katrina formed over the Bahamas, crossed into Florida as a Category 1 storm, but strengthened rapidly in the Gulf of Mexico. When it hit landfall next, as a Category 3 storm, the storm surge caused damage along the coastlines of Louisiana, Mississippi, and Alabama. Levees between Lake Pontchartrain and New Orleans were breached, flooding almost 80% of New Orleans. Katrina is both the costliest hurricane in US history (at $75 Billion), as well as the deadliest (with an estimated 1,500 victims).

LIVE 8 - Live 8 went down in July in the G8 countries and South Africa. The concerts, organized by Bob Geldof, the mind behind the LiveAID benefit celebrating its 20th Anniversary, were host to an amazing array of artists from all over the world, including: Pink Floyd (playing together for the first time since 1981), Bryan Adams, Good Charlotte, Paul McCartney, U2, Coldplay, Elton John, R.E.M., Snoop Dogg, Madonna, Mariah Carey, Robbie Williams, The Who, Black Eyed Peas, Bon Jovi, Kanye West, Destiny's Child, Toby Keith, DMB, Alicia Keys, Jars of Clay, Stevie Wonder, plus many, many more. More important than the concerts was the message: "Make Poverty History". The hard work was worth it, as the G8 Summit voted to double the aid to Africa from $25billion to $50billion by 2010.

Terror in Britain - It was a normal, busy day in London on July 7. That all changed around 8:49, when reports of an explosion made its way to authorities. Within the next 30 minutes, two train stations had explosion reports, with the rest of the cities train stations evacuating. By 10:00 the National Grid, which supplies power to the underground railways, said that nothing had occurred with their system. Ten minutes later officials began reporting that there had been an explosive device attached to the first train to explode. Just a few minutes later a report of a bus exploding were announced. By 1:00 that afternoon, authorities were estimating 150 people dead

FACEBOOK Takes Over LaGrange!

In September a phenomenon struck LaGrange College in the form of a little internet site called Facebook. Like Xanga and MySpace, Facebook is a community for college students to connect, make friends, and, basically, show off how popular you are (or not). Over 500 LaGrange College students have become members of Facebook, making the website one of the most popular forms of procrastination. From Photo Galleries to Groups (like "Private School Survivors"), Facebook has provided an outlet of time-wasting other than runs to Taco Bell or Wal-Mart. Ok, maybe not.

To all who have helped bring this vision of this yearbook to this point I thank you all! To my right hand, Sandra I thank you for all your extreme hardwork, strength, and insight. I also thank the 2005-2006 Yearbook Staff for all their hardwork and dedication for such a vision could not have been completed by just myself or Sandra alone. I have a new vision for 2006-2007 yearbook to be better & bigger than this year. Until next year I wish you all best wishes on finals and enjoy your summer and I'll see you next year again as your co - editor.

God Bless & 1Luv,
Terrica S. Ellis

Wow. What an amazing roller coaster of a ride this past year and a half has been. I have learned so many things that are irreplaceable. There have been times I was so overwhelmed that I truly wanted to quit. But it was the constant support and encouragement from my roommates, friends and the staff, faculty, and students here that kept me going. Doing this yearbook, stepping out on this shaky limb was one of the best decisions I ever made. It has been so much fun, but even more than that it has taught me so much. As editor I have had to step out, way out, of my comfort zone. I know I am a better person because of this experience. And while there have been many ups and many more downs through the last months, I am so glad we did it. Thank you to Carolyn for all your help- I do not know how I would have done it without you! And to the others who are too many to name here- Thanks! Terrica, we did it! I hope we have given LC a wonderful yearbook. And as I am here for another year, I hope next year's is even better now that we know more of what the heck we are doing!

See you next year!

A daughter is a precious gift,
A blessing from above.
She's laughter, warmth, and feminine charm;
She's thoughtfulness and love.

A daughter bring a special joy
That comes from deep inside.
And as she grows to womanhood
She fills your heart with pride.

The love she gives so freely
Is a rare and beautiful gift.
She brings the sunshine right indoors
And gives your heart a lift.

With every busy, happy year
She's dearer than ever before,
Through every stage... through every age,
You love her more and more.

Dear Lauren,

Remember when you were 5 and wanted to go to "Big School"; it has happened and your goal list for life is getting shorter. Keep God first while staying sweet and compassionate as you climb the ladder of success and you will go far. Our prayer is that you live a good life healthy, happy and safe.

All Our Love, Mom & Dad "333"

Build me a son, O Lord, who will be strong enough to know when he is weak, and brave enough to face himself when he is afraid; one who will be proud and unbending in honest defeat, and humble, and gentle in victory. Build me a son whose wishes will not take the place of deeds; a son who will know Thee- and that to know himself is the foundation stone of knowledge. Lead him, I pray, not in the path of ease and comfort, but under the stress and spur of difficulties and challenge. Here let him learn to stand up in the storm; here let him learn compassion for those who fail. Build me a son whose heart will be clear, whose goal will be high; a son who will master himself before he seeks to master other men; one who will reach into the future, yet never forget the past. And after all these things are his, add, I pray, enough of a sense of humor, so that he may always be serious, yet never take himself seriously. Give him humility so that he may always remember the simplicity of true greatness, the open mind of true wisdom, and the meekness of true strength. Then, I, his father, will dare to whisper, "I have not lived in vain."

Congratulations Seniors!

BRENT CARTLEDGE

Oh the wonder of you! We have been blessed that God put you in our arms. Thank you for who you are. Love much, laugh often, and live well. Do not miss a day of your life. Find ways to make each day matter to you, to another, to the world. Develop, listen to, nurture and trust your instincts. As you close on a chapter of your life and begin another, we know you will succeed in whatever you choose to do. Your hard work and determination will take you far in life. You have great strength and wonderful gifts. Always believe in yourself, and there will be no limit to what you can do. So reach for the stars as you climb life's ladder, take faith along with you and great will be your happiness. Always remember we love you, and we are always here for you. Always trust God to lead you and believe in yourself as much as we believe in you.

Love,

For our wonderful daughter, Nicole

You are a treasure and blessing given to us from above. You are our laughter, warmth, and tenderness. Our hearts are filled with love and pride. It doesn't seem so long ago that you were a little girl, still happily playing, wearing ponytails and ribbons. It seems only yesterday we were bending to kiss you good night and wishing you sweet dreams.

You are blessed with a loving heart, gentle spirit, strong determination, contentment, friendship, laughter and the love of your family. Remember your dreams and go for them. Believe in yourself.

The wish we make for you today is that some small measure of the love, joy, and pride you have brought to our lives, will be returned to you as you begin your journey. May your life path be filled with all the love and happiness one heart can hold.

We are very proud of you, no words can describe the cherished memories and love that come from having a daughter such as you.

You fill our hearts- We love you so much!
